

Old Capitol Quilt Guild
Guild Meeting – October 12, 2026
Our Redeemer Lutheran Church – 7 pm

President Joleen Green opened the meeting. Visitors were introduced.

Announcements:

- The documentary, “A Work in Progress” will be aired at the Film Scene in Iowa City at 6:45 p.m. on Friday, October 16. The guild’s sew day was filmed at the Iowa City Public Library for inclusion in this documentary, but our footage was “edited out.” Tickets are $5.00.
- The Iowa Quilt Museum is having a sale at the New Bridge Church in Winterset on November 7. Many supplies will be offered for sale.
- This past month’s UFO challenge number was 5. Five names were drawn to receive prizes for completing their projects. The next number is 9. Members can still register for the challenge by contacting Laura Dunn.

Minutes - The minutes of the September 14, 2026 meeting were approved as circulated. Motion to approve was made by Connie Smith, second by Beth Cullen. Motion carried.

Treasurer’s Report - Barb Thomas shared the following treasurer’s report: checking account beginning balance was $10,545.69; end of the month balance was $11,974.89; savings account balance is $270.30; CD balance is $15,649. Details of monthly income and expenses will be printed in the upcoming newsletter.

History - Meredith Sewell will be taking pictures of “Show and Tell” quilts. Members are reminded to share their name and email address for contact later.

Library – Glenda Skallerud requested that members sign up to be volunteer greeters and/or Show and Tell quilt holders.

Membership – Members should sign up tonight if they wish to receive a hard copy of the membership directory.

Retreat – Members attending the upcoming retreat should have received an email with detailed information about the retreat. If not, please contact Sherry Lang.

May 2027 Quilt Show – Sherry Lang reminded members that if they are interested in ordering the quilt show tee shirts, orders should be submitted by Wednesday, October 14th. The orders will be delivered at next month's meeting.

Service – A number of service quilts were displayed. Sherrie Adkison promoted members taking kits and backing projects for completion. Tomorrow, October 13 there will be a sew day from 1 -7 pm. It is not too late to submit a red, white and blue quilt.

Program – Connie Brinton shared that the scheduled speaker for this evening, Margo Kramer, was injured in a fall and will not be able to present this evening. Instead, Jackie Morrical will share her experience at a Bonnie Hunter retreat in Virginia and share quilts she and others have made from Bonnie's mystery challenges.

There is still room for next month's workshop on Escher table runners.

A motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Faith Timm, second by Connie Brinton. The motion carried.

Show and Tell quilts were displayed and the group enjoyed the program on Bonnie Hunter mystery challenges.

Respectfully submitted,

Nancy Lathrop
